Life Navigators 2013 Annual Report

Live.
Work.
Volunteer.

Dear Friends,

What an active year we've had here at Life Navigators! Children and adults with disabilities have so many skills and talents to offer our community. In 2013, we focused on offering additional community outings and social events for all.

These outings are incredibly important to the individuals with disabilities that we so proudly serve. Offering a bowling party, summer picnic, game nights and much more, our consumers had a great year. Through these outings, our consumers created friendships, developed their leadership skills and learned about teamwork.

Meet Roger. Roger was a shy and quiet individual who was bullied because of his disability. He avoided talking with others and often stayed indoors listening to music. Roger then started participating in Life Navigators programming. Through the Life Navigators social and community outings, Roger has become more confident, social and active in our community. Today, Roger enjoys talking with others and has a great group of friends!

A huge thank you to our many generous donors, volunteers and friends who make our work possible. It is because of you that children and adults with disabilities, like Roger, are living active lives in our community.

Warm Regards,

Vicki Wachniak
Executive Director

“Thank you
for supporting individuals with disabilities to be active
in our community!”

Vicki, Executive Director
