We Challenge You!

Are you ready to accept Dave & Carol's challenge to positively impact kids and adults with disabilities?

Dave & Carol are long-time supporters of Life Navigators and all kids and adults with disabilities in our community.

Your support will make a difference for their son, Dan, and many other individuals. Dan is a member of the Life Navigators Self-Advocacy & Independence Program and loves participating in our social and community outings. Life Navigators means so much to their entire family.
